Narrator: Once upon a time, in the land of _____, there lived a kind queen.

Queen: Hello, I'm Queen Emily.

Narrator: This queen was a great ruler over the land. She was fair, patient, and kind. She lived in the castle with her children. Her older child, Chris, the middle child Rainbow, and her youngest at 4 years old... also Chris.

Christy: Christy!

Narrator: Christy. The queen couldn't think of another boy name, so she stuck with Chris. However, our littlest prince isn't a fan, so he calls himself Christy to get on his mother's nerves. They also have a pet dragon, Mimi, and a pet cheetah, Miles. The castle they live in is filled with wondrous objects. As the two oldest, Chris and Rainbow, were exploring one day, they came across a very old ancient relic.

Chris: Look!

Rainbow: What is that?

Chris: It says it can grant us one wish but to be careful because we can only wish once every 10 years.

Narrator: And so they spent a long time thinking about their wishes. Eventually, they both went back to the relic, bringing their little brother along with them.

Christy: Shiny

Chris: Don't touch! Relic, I wish that I could be really good at soccer so I can eventually become the best in the world.

Sound effect for wish granted

Rainbow: I wish that I could have the powers of a mermaid and be able to change into one when I want.

Sound again

Christy: Shiny... scissors!

Sound effect

Narrator: All three of their wishes had been granted... even though Christy didn't mean to make a wish. They all ran upstairs to tell their mom, the queen, what just happened.

Queen: This is all very exciting! Where is it?

Christy: Upstairs!

Queen: Christy should you have those scissors?

Christy: Mine!

Chris: Ok mom, I've gotta go practice soccer!

Rainbow: I'm going to the sea!

Narrator: And so they all ran off.

Queen: Hmm... maybe we should go find this ancient relic that they speak of. What do you think, Miles?

Miles: I don't know...

Queen: Come on! Let's go.

Narrator: So they went off in search of this wish-granting item. As Rainbow was walking to the sea, she passed the pet dragon Mimi.

Mimi: Hey Rainbow! Where are you going?

Narrator: Rainbow explained that she just made a wish and now she has mermaid abilities and powers.

Mimi: That's so cool. Could you use them on me??

Narrator: Mimi explained that she wanted to be colorful, like the other dragons.

Mimi: Instead of this boring, dull color.

Narrator: So Rainbow used her Mermaid powers to turn Mimi a bright shade of purple and Mimi tagged along with her to the sea to show off her new colors.
Meanwhile down at the sea...

Shimmer: I love being a mermaid and able to talk to all the fishes in the sea but I wish I could practice my powers on land.

Issa: If I were a human, we could both go explore together.

Diamond: All I want is to explore the ocean more, but my mom says I'm too little.

Shimmer: Who's that coming?

Narrator: Our mermaids saw Rainbow and Mimi running excitedly towards the water.

Rainbow: Hi friends!! I'm a mermaid too!

Shimmer, Issa, & Diamond: Huh??

Narrator: Rainbow explained her new powers to the other mermaids. They were so excited.

Mimi: She even gave me a new coat!

All Mermaids: Can you grant our wish too??

Narrator: So Rainbow decided to use her mermaid magic yet again, turning all of her new mermaid friends into humans for the day, not realizing that her magic would soon run out.
Meanwhile back at the castle...

Chris: Wasn't that soccer trick I showed you SO cool??

Christy: Yes!

Queen: Now boys, no playing soccer in the castle. Christy, put down the scissors. Boys, I have to tell you something. I made a wish that I would not be queen for a whole day. It is just too hard.

Chris: But if you aren't queen, who will rule the kingdom?

Queen: That is not my problem. I need a break.

Narrator: Just then, Christy stole his brother's soccer ball and ran off towards the kitchen. Chris chased after him. Just then, the queen heard a loud POP!

Chris: NOOOOO.

Narrator: The boys came running back towards the queen with a popped soccer ball. Christy had popped his ball on accident with the shiny scissors.

Queen: It's okay Chris. Just wish for a new one!

Narrator: So all three of them along with Miles the Cheetah, ran upstairs to ask the relic for another wish. Meanwhile back at the sea, the mermaids were all walking on land for the first time ever.

Mermaids and Mimi: Wow this is so cool!!

Narrator: They decided to all walk back up to the castle to explore with their new legs. As they were walking up, Shimmer bumped into Miles the Cheetah.

Shimmer: Hello!

Miles: Hola!

Shimmer: Woah! I can talk to land animals too!

Issa & Diamond: Cool!

Narrator: Just then, the queen, Christopher, and Christy all came running out of the castle.

Queen, Chris, & Christy: The relic!! It's gone!!

Everyone: What!!

Narrator: Everyone began to panic. Without the relic, none of the wishes could be reversed. The mermaids would never swim again, Mimi would stay colorful, Chris could never play soccer, and the Queen would never rule again.

Queen: Let's split up and search!

Narrator: So everyone began looking high and low all around the castle for the relic. The Mermaids went to all of the rooms with water. They started in the kitchen...

Mermaids: yummy snacks!

Narrator: and ended in the bathroom.

Issa, Shimmer, and Diamond: Eww gross!

Rainbow: Not here!

Narrator: Chris and Christy went to all of the bedrooms.

Chris: Not here either.

Christy: Shiny toy!

Narrator: Queen Emily took Mimi and Miles to the throne room to search.

Queen: Look everywhere!

Mimi: I don't see it.

Miles: Nope.

Narrator: Eventually, they all bumped into each other downstairs.

Everyone: What are we going to do...

Queen: I'll never be the ruler again.

Mimi: I'll be stuck this color forever!

Mermaids: We miss the sea!

Rainbow: And my powers!

Chris: I want to play soccer!

Narrator: Just then, Christy took off running yelling:

Christy: Toy! Have to get toy!

Narrator: Confused, everyone chased after him. After all, a 4 year-old should not be running around by themselves. They followed him up all the way to his royal toy room. The one place they did not check.

Christy pulls out the relic that was hidden in his toy room

Christy: Toy! I found. I hid. You are all sad. I am sorry.

Narrator: A sigh of relief spread around the room.

Everyone: Thank goodness!

Mimi: But wait, I thought we could only wish every 10 years. We need someone who hasn't wished yet.

Mermaids: We will do it! All 3 hold hands I wish, I wish, with all my heart, for everything to go back to the start.

Narrator: And with that wish, all was reversed. However, because the mermaids selflessly used their wish to help their friends, they were all given the gift to become humans again anytime they wanted. The same for Mimi- her scales turned back to their original shade though she had the option of becoming colorful when she felt like it. Chris was able to play soccer again, but he would have to work a little harder to become the best soccer player in the world. Christy got to keep his shiny scissors, and the Queen became ruler again.

Chris: Wow, I thought our first wishes would fix everything but it seemed to cause all this chaos.

Queen: Yeah, maybe we didn't need wishes to fix our life.

Shimmer: All we needed was friendship.

Everyone else: And adventure!

Narrator: And so, this ragtag group became the best of friends. Our mermaids got to live the best of both worlds, exploring the sea and the land, our Queen realized her ruling was a blessing and not a curse, Miles had a new best friend in Shimmer and they visited each other often. Mimi embraced her natural color but would add in some streaks of color here and there. Chris and Christy were best friends as they kept growing. Chris became a famous soccer player and Christy had the world record of the biggest collection of shiny things in the world. The wishing relic brought them together and they were all grateful. And they all lived...

Everyone: Happily ever after!
