

Arabic Immersion Magnet School
Spring 2024
Theatre Lab Play

The Princesses, the Dragon, and the Alicorn

Characters

Lilah (the eldest princess).....Zoey
Yesseniah (good witch in training)Layla
Marcelina (a shape shifter).....Ayah
Vanesa (the second youngest).....Zaynah
Analisa (the youngest).....Gogo Ally (the alicorn).....Tazil
Dragon (the dragon).....Jack
Puff Puff (the dog).....Amelia
Narrator (the narrator).....Miss Anna

Scene 1 (Outside the Castle)

Narrator: Once upon a time, in a faraway land, there was a huge castle guarded by a 1,000 year old dragon.

Dragon: I have been guarding this castle for 999 years. I have been cursed to protect this castle for 1000 years, but I am scared the princesses inside will learn magic and escape.

Scene 2 (Inside the Castle)

Narrator: Inside a castle lived five sisters who were also princesses. Each had been banished to this castle when they had turned three because they were no ordinary princesses! These princesses had magic in their blood. Each had a special magical gift, however, none of them knew it just yet.

Lilah: I wish we could leave this castle. I can never be queen if we don't leave.

Yessenia: But the castle is enchanted, and we don't know magic so we can't get out.

Analisa: And even if we could get out, there is a dragon guarding the exit.

Lilah: That dragon is preventing me from being queen.

Marcelina: Maybe we can learn magic? I learned I can do this!

Marcelina transforms into a cat. Meow!

Narrator: All the sisters were in shock and their family dog, Puff Puff was terrified of the cat.

Puff Puff: Ahhhhh!

Narrator: Marcelina, the princess who is currently a cat, continued to meow. Everyone heard meowing except for one of the princesses, Vanesa.

Marcelina: Meow (as if asking a question)

Vanesa: Yes of course we can understand you!

Analisa: You can understand her? All I hear is meowing!

Vanesa: I guess I can talk to animals!

Scene 3 (The Living Room)

Narrator: As the sisters spoke they began their daily chores to clean the living room when, in walked a Baby Alicorn. The alicorn was very misunderstood as no one spoke her language, she was spouting making her animal sounds minding her own business when all of a sudden Vanessa stopped her.

ALICORN: I just want my wings! I will never get them.

VANESSA: It is going to be okay alicorn. If you just have some confidence you will gain your wings.

NARRATOR: At this, the baby alicorn..... perked up! She wondered if at last someone could hear her when she spoke.

Alicorn: Can you understand me?

Vanesa: Yes!

Lilah: Who are you talking to?

Alicorn: Yay! Can you help me get my wings!?

Vanesa: Of course. We can all help you.

Marcelina: And now she speaks to alicorns

Analisa: No.. Unicorns.

Yennissa: She still needs her wings to be an alicorn.

NARRATOR: and so they all set out to assist the alicorn to get her wings with their newfound powers. Meanwhile, sister's pet dog, Puff Puff, heard that Vanessa could now talk to animals.

Puff Puff: Vanessa, I really want a bone! Can you help me to get one?

Vanessa: Ohh Puff Puff, we don't have any bones inside the castle. But one day we are going to escape and when we are outside the castle I will give you as many bones as you want.

Scene 4

Sisters EXIT

NARRATOR Meanwhile, the dragon guarding the exit was getting worried that if the princesses discovered their powers, they would escape. So, he transformed himself as an old man and entered the castle. His first job was to remove all the spell books from the library. Little did he know, that one of the princesses, Yessenia, was in the library at that moment.

Dragon: Hello? Are there any princesses home?

YESSENIA drops the book she is reading in fear.

Yessenia: Ahhh! Who are you?

Dragon: I'm just a kind old man! Is that a spell book you are reading?

Yessinia: Yes. I'm trying to find out if I have magic like my sisters.

Narrator: She told the old man about her sister Marcelina who could shape-shift and her sister Vanesa who could talk to animals. The dragon (disguised as an old man) was angry to hear that the princesses were discovering their powers. He immediately hatched a plan to trick the princesses into thinking that he could teach them magic.

DRAGON: But I'll be teaching them all the wrong things.

Narrator: The dragon/old man spent the rest of the afternoon "instructing" Yessenia how to do spells. She couldn't do anything the old man instructed. Finally, she got frustrated and yelled at the old man...

Yessenia: Go away!

DRAGON as Old Man is thrown across the room.

Narrator: Yessenia was shocked that she had the power to speak spell! The dragon was furious but decided not to let it show. Yessenia asked him a question.

Yessenia: Will you come meet my sisters and teach them magic too?

Dragon: Of course!

Scene 5

Narrator: Later when Yessenia and the old man arrived, the sisters and the alicorn were all frightened because the youngest, Analisa, was sick. They turned to the eldest, Lilah, to ask what to do.

Lilah: Let's take her out to the garden. Maybe some fresh air will help.

Narrator: and so they went out to the garden.

Scene 6 (The Garden)

Narrator: In the garden, the sisters and the old man sat with Analisa. As they sat, they noticed that the flower next to Analisa started to grow like crazy.

Marcelina: What is happening?

Analisa: I don't know! I feel like I am getting strength from this flower!

Lilah: You must have the power to control nature, and being in nature is healing you.

Narrator: The sisters decided it was more important than ever that they leave the castle. Especially because being away from nature was making their youngest sister, Analisa, sick. They decided they would try the next day. While they slept, the old man turned himself back into a dragon. Determined not to let the princesses escape the next day.

Scene 7

Narrator: The next day, the princesses, the baby alicorn, and puff puff the dog, took the first step to leave and approached the locked front door. Yessenia used her newfound power of casting spells to unlock the door.

Yessenia: Unlock.

The door unlocks.

Narrator: Next, the princesses faced a treacherous mote. But Marcelina had an idea.

Marcelina: I will shape-shift into a giant bird and fly us across.

Narrator: So one by one, Marcelina flew her sisters, the dog, and the alicorn across the mote.

Narrator: Next, the princess faced a huge growth of thorny plants that blocked their way.

Analisa: I can help!

Narrator: Analisa waved her hand and the thorns disappeared. As they walked past the castle, she felt immediately healed from her illness because she was reunited with nature.

Narrator: Finally, the princesses and the alicorn reached the dragon. They shook with fear. The dragon roared.

Dragon: ROOAARRR!

Narrator: But one of the princesses didn't hear a roar. Vanessa understood the language of all animals, including dragons. She translated for her sisters.

Vanessa: He says he won't let us escape.

Lilah: Ask him why.

Dragon: ROOAAR! ROOAAAR!

Vanessa: He says because he will be lonely without all the heroes trying to come and save us.

Lilah: Well, tell the dragon that if he lets us out, we can all be friends. We will take him back to our country and he can live there with us.

Narrator: Vanessa translated her sister's wise words and the dragon stopped angrily stomping. He thought for a moment. Then he started to dance!

Lilah: What is he doing?

Marcelina: I think he is dancing.

Alicorn: He seems so happy!

Vanessa: Do you want to come with us back to our country?

Dragon nods yes

Narrator: There was only one problem. The dragon had been cursed to protect the castle for 1000 years and it had only been 999 years. The dragon explained this to princesses. Then, Lilah had an idea.

Lilah: We are magic, let's try to break the curse.

Narrator: All the princesses, the Alicorn, and Puff Puff joined hands (and paws and hooves) around the dragon and focused on breaking the dragon's curse. Their thoughts combined and lifted the curse!

Dragon: I'm free!

Scene 10

Narrator: The princesses, the alicorn, and the dragon were ready to travel back to their country. But it was hundreds of miles away. The only way they could get there was to fly, but they couldn't all fit on the dragon and Marcelina's backs.

Yessinia: How will we get back home?

Analisa: We have to fly.

Narrator: They all thought for a moment.... Then the dragon got an idea!

Dragon: I can use my special magic and give the alicorn wings!

Narrator: The alicorn was so excited!

Alicorn: Thank you!

Narrator: Now, they could all travel back. As they traveled, Analisa realized her sister Lilah was sad.

Analisa: Why are you sad Lilah?

Lilah: Because you all have magic powers and I don't. How can I be queen if I am not magical like all of you?

Marcelina: That's not true! You have guided us with your wisdom this whole journey. That is your power!

Narrator: Lilah thought about what Marcelina said. With the power of wisdom, Lilah knew she would make a great queen.

Scene 12

Narrator: When the princesses, the alicorn, and the dragon arrived back to their country and threw a huge party to show their people that they did not have to fear magic.

Puff Puff: Excuse me, but now that we have escaped the castle, can I finally get a bone?

Vanessa: Of course!

VANESSA gives Puff Puff a bone.

Narrator: Lilah was crowned queen and the entire country celebrated for days on end and they all...

ALL: lived happily ever after.

The End