Narrator: Once upon a time, there was a land called Disenchantia. This land was home to some of the most gifted and talented creatures you've only dreamed of seeing. Werewolves, Shape-Shifters, Mermaids, and more all lived together peacefully, alongside the most adventurous humans. Disenchantia was home to a special school that helped these students learn more about what it means to be a mythical creature, Disenchantia Preparatory School for Extraordinary kids. However, our story begins on the outside of the school.

Enid: But mom, why can't I go?! All of my friends are there!

Narrator: "Because it's too dangerous. What if there are bullies? How will you control your temper if one of them picks on you?"

Enid: Mom, I haven't accidentally turned into a werewolf in YEARS. I'll be fine.

Narrator: "You are staying here at the 'Boring Safe School for Ordinary Children'. That's final!"

Enid: But I'm not boring.. Or ordinary. I have to get to that school.

Narrator: So, Enid created a plan to visit that school for one day. She thought surely if her mom could see that her werewolf abilities could be controlled she would sign her up for that school in no time. She just has to find the research and meet the right people there. So the next morning, bright and early, she packed her backpack and headed towards Disenchantia Prep. Meanwhile at the school...

Lucy: Hurry up Cora! We are going to be late for the first day of class!

Cora: I'm moving as fast as I can!

Lucy: You should've left your silly pet guinea pig in your room.

Cora: We are all allowed one animal friend and he is mine.

Narrator: The girls were running so late and Cora's guinea pig Marmalade was too slow and much too big for her to carry, she told him to meet her at class and they ran off.

Marmalade: Shapeshifts into a human, looks around trying to be sneaky My plan is going perfectly! I've waited years to be brought to this school so I could steal the magic globe. Now all I have to do is find it...

Narrator: While they were all trying to get to their first class, Enid was just making her way onto campus.

Enid: Yes! I found it! But where do I go now...

Rosita: Makes a quiet noise

Enid: Woah! I almost didn't see you there.

Rosita: Waves

Enid: Can you talk?

Rosita: Shakes head no

Enid: That's okay, you can be my friend! I'm lost here too.

Narrator: Enid had just bumped into the smallest unicorn she had ever seen, though it was hard for her to tell because her horn hadn't quite grown in yet. Her name was Rosita, though she couldn't tell Enid that because she was so shy she couldn't speak. So Enid decided to call her...

Enid: Little J!

Narrator: And they both went to explore the school. On the inside however...

Marmalade: AGH!! Where is it?? I've been searching all day and this school is HUGE.

Cora: Hello teacher! We are looking for my pet Marmalade. Have you seen him?

Marmalade: Putting on glasses and changing voice Uh, no I haven't. Try your bedroom?

The girls leave

Marmalade: Whew that was close. Guess I better go to the room so I don't get caught.

Narrator: So Marmalade scurried out and sneakily followed Lucy and Coraline with they kept exploring and looking for their classes.

Cora: Lucy, what's it like being a vampire?

Lucy: It's okay. Sometimes I like it but my real wish is that I could be human whenever I want.

Cora: I heard there's a special globe here that grants you a wish if you can find it.

Lucy: Really??

Narrator: Just then, they bumped into Enid and Rosita... I mean, Little J.

Enid: Hey! My name is Enid and this is Little J.

Lucy: Are you students here?

Enid: Little J is but I'm not. My parents said this school was too dangerous but I have to come here! I'm a werewolf.

Cora: Wow. All my parents did was try to give me button eyes so I could see the future but I said no so they sent me here instead.

Lucy: We are looking for a magic globe. Want to help??

Marmalade: To audience The magic globe!!

Enid & Rosita: Yes!

Everyone: Let's go!

Marmalade: I will follow the group and they will lead me straight to the magic globe! It's perfect! Evil laugh

Cora: Oh! There you are Marmalade. Come on!

Narrator: So they all took off in search of the magic globe. They searched in all of the classrooms and bedrooms with no luck. Eventually they went to the library to see if they could find some information that would help. Everyone began looking around for books or clues that might lead them to the globe.

Lucy: What do you have there Little J?

Little J: It's a book on how to become a real unicorn.

Everyone: You can talk??

Little J: I'm just shy. But I want to learn how to use my powers. That's why I'm missing my horn.

Narrator: Just then, Cora pulled a book off the shelf and a secret passage opened up. Everyone looked at each other and then went into the tunnel. When they came out into the room, they saw all of the special things the school keeps hidden.

Lucy: Look! The globe!

Marmalade: Yes! It is the globe! And it will be MINE. First I must tie you all up. Snaps and the girls and stuck together

Everyone: What's happening??

Marmalade: I have been disguised as a cute little animal so I could be taken into this school. When I get control of the globe, my one wish will be for world domination.

Little J: You can't do that!

Marmalade: SILENCE! Now I have to go find the switch to disarm the lasers. Don't move. Oh wait! You can't.

Little J: What are we going to do?

Lucy: I have an idea!

Narrator: Lucy used her vampire fangs to cut through the rope holding them together to free them.

Cora: Wait, I just saw the future for the first time ever. If we run away Marmalade will get the globe and we are all doomed! We have one minute to fix this.

Little J: I will fly to the globe. I see the switch across the lasers.

Narrator: Because of Rosita.. I mean Little J's braveness, her magical powers kicked in. She was able to fly above the lasers and flip the switch to turn them off. Everyone cheered.

Lucy: But wait, the globe is too heavy to move.

Marmalade: WHAT ARE YOU DOING? How did you escape?!

Coraline: Because we are smarter, stronger, and braver than you!

Marmalade: SILENCE.

Enid: Don't talk to my friends like that. Ok. Now I'm mad.

Narrator: And just like that, Enid transformed into a werewolf. She became big and strong. Marmalade was so scared that he tried to transform into a werewolf to fight her but accidentally shifted back into a guinea pig.

Marmalade: Uh-oh.

Narrator: Enid knocked the heavy lid holding the globe off, picked up Marmalade, and replaced him with the globe in the blink of an eye. She quickly put the lid back on so he was trapped. Then she became herself again.

All other girls: Woah...

Enid: I guess that's what my mom was afraid of. Well now we are safe.

Cora: Lucy, aren't you going to make your wish?

Lucy: Yeah. I have a wish. Grabs globe I wish that Little J would be so confident in herself that her horn and powers would grow!

Little J: You used your wish on me?

Lucy: Yeah, I don't need to be a human. My vampire teeth come in handy.

Enid: So did my super werewolf strength.

Cora: So did my vision!

Marmalade: Yeah, yeah. I'll get you for this!

Narrator: And so, all four of the girls continued on at Disenchanted Prep, learning more about their strengths and abilities. They became best friends and stayed friends forever. Marmalade never escaped from the glass box. Rumor has it he is still in there today plotting his revenge. And they all lived...

All girls: Happily ever after!

Marmalade: Except me.

Everyone: The end!
